Incoming Communication:

VP Welfare:

Pronoun Badge:

SUSU have reordered them and LB wishes to charge £0.50 for the pronoun badge. The committee do not believe that we should charge for the pronoun badge.

Wording for Transgender Awareness Week:

VP welfare put out their own advertisement for the Thursday event the committee were not happy with the wording of the advertisement therefore the committee will discuss with VP welfare about the changing of the wording for the event.

SUSU LGBT+ SOCIETY

Rainbow Night:

Happening in Transgender awareness week, an attempt was to book The Art House, but it was fully book. The new rule for booking of the Bridge is only booking out half of it, unless you have numbers. However, the committee feel that it will out transgender member of the societies, if we can only have half KG suggested that we open the Rainbow Dinner to all society members. AB suggested that once the dinner was over if the Bridge can be used, open it up for the rest of the society

Transport:

Transport for the TDOR vigil - SUSU said that they would provide a minibus to and from the vigil. VP-Welfare says that we can only have the minibus for one trip, however SUSU originally offered a minibus to and from the vigil. Therefore, we will be utilising the original offer of the mini bus

Support from VP-Welfare

Keep communicating with the Society.

Drag Race:

Stags have begun to show RuPaul Drag-race UK. Drag-race is a debatable topic within the LGBT+ community. The committee does not want the RuPaul Drag-race to be shown during Transgender Week of Awareness, however, the EDGE (magazine) still wishes to run the Drag Race event during Transgender awareness week. Therefore, the committee needs to speak to the EDGE to pass on the wish for it not to occur during Transgender awareness week.

The events as discussed below are accurate to what was discussed during the committee meeting, despite some changes post committee meeting due to date mix ups

Events:

Lunches:

There will be an attempt to the upload the lunches, the week prior to the lunch.

Trans Awareness Week Event Discussion:

Monday: Rainbow Night 7pm.

The Rainbow Night that will occur during Transgender Awareness Week, will be a dinner for trans members of the society only. This is, however, dependent on whether depending on whether the society has full use of the Bridge. If so, the event post dinner will be open to all members of the society.

Tuesday: Discussion Group (Meeting Room 2)

The discussion group occurring during Transgender awareness week will be led by LLG. EKC commented that they would be able to attend with AB and KG a maybe. There was discussion of submitting questions anonymously to be asked.

Wednesday: TDOR Vigil 6PM

Leaving campus at 6pm. We have candles for people to hold during the vigil, KG will give them to the EM who will be able to attend the vigil on the Wednesday. There will be as previously discussed a mini bus to and from the vigil

SUSU LGBT+ SOCIETY

Thursday: Kenny Jones (6-9pm Bar 2, £2).

CP is unsure what will be discussed during the Kenny Jones events. VP welfare hoped that the talk would be able to help provide a role model for transgender people, and that this event was an awareness event for cisgender people. The event is ticketed with £2 going to Chrysalis. LLG commented that this event is not run or managed with us, therefore perhaps the committee should take a minimal hands-on approach. KG wanted VP Welfare, to change the advertisements wordings from "SUSU Presents". The committee position is that we do not feel that this event is appropriate and this event for cisgender people.

We have committee members at all our events next week.

Thursday (tomorrow) will see the advertisement for TAW out tomorrow.

Icon changing:

KG will send the stuff that is needed for Trans Awareness Week icon change to EA our publicity officer

February:

CP spoke to the events person for RAG, who was very accommodating. Originally it was a speed-dating event. The idea that CP presented was a glitter-party mixer, essentially an embellished rainbow night. Glitter theme with cocktails with edible glitter, The Bridge cannot do food so if we did want food, we would have to provide it ourselves. With the "dress to impress". An LGBT charity would be our preference, if RAG does not already have a suitable charity in mind.

Trans Swimming:

Jubilee said it was c.£100 pound to book it out for an hour, which is the normally rate that they provide to societies. Members that came would not have to pay for entry. However, the society is unsure about the uptake that we would have for such an event.

Discuss next time:

1. Christmas Rainbow Night.
2. Christmas Dinner.
3. Christmas Events.
 - a. Figure Skating.
 - b. End-of-Term social.
4. Committee restructure.
5. General Events:
 - a. Non-alcoholic events at the Edge
